New this Fall! Adult Bible Adventurers

We are pleased to announce a new ministry for parents and any other interested adults related to children (Grades 1-6) who attend our Bible Adventures Ministry on Sunday evenings. Bible Adventurers is starting up for the fall on Sunday, September 9, 2018, at 6:00 pm, in the MAC (Ministry Activities Center) at 36 Tolan Street. Adults will be reviewing the same lessons the children are learning. Topics include "Divisions of the Bible", "The Temptation of Jesus", "The First Lord's Supper", "New Testament History", and more. Each night, people will have time to discuss how their family time went throughout the week. It's a great opportunity to learn, encourage, and grow together with what we consider so valuable, everyone's relationship with God and our relationship with our children. What an exciting way to be more aware, better prepared, enhance family time, and to reinforce what the kids are learning each week at Bible Adventurers. Please bring your kids and Bible, and be prepared to have a great time sharing God's Word with your kids each week. Keep a look out as more information will be coming your way!
